

WALA NEWS

---

Buenos Aires, September 19, 2014

The 7th edition of the Worldwide Airport Lawyers Association (WALA) annual meeting took place last week in Buenos Aires, Argentina

This year's edition gathered a record of more than 150 delegates representing 82 organizations from 27 different countries from all continents.

Sessions covered issues such as: pricing an airport company, resolving disputes during the execution of concessions, wildlife aircraft strikes, European data protection law, airport insurance coverage, and privatization and reverse privatization experiences.

As a highlight of the conference, WALA's board announced that in 2015 the association will be expanding its current scope with initiatives such as worldwide seminar programs, new membership categories, and active participation in industry events.

This 2014 conference was organized by Abiax Air aviation events and hosted by Aeropuertos Argentina 2000. The main sponsor was SITA and other sponsors that contributed to this success included M&M Bomchil, Locke Lord Solicitors, Airbus, Urwantschky Dangel Borst, , Kaplan Kirsch Rockwell, AIG, Zacharias, Vandelande, Edasa, Yelpo & Facal.

Venue and dates for the 2015 edition will be announced shortly.

For 2014 conference web site, delegate list, pictures and presentations please visit www.wala2014.org

For additional info on new membership programs, seminar sessions, or any other interest in WALA please contact: wala@abiaxair.com or [Gustavo Di Cio gdicio@abiaxair.com](mailto:Gustavo Di Cio gdicio@abiaxair.com)